Public Libraries Victoria Network (PLVN) is an incorporated association of Victorian public library services. Activities include advocacy, information sharing, training, consortia purchasing and joint projects.

Compliance

PLVN is committed to complying with the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (‘the Act’).

This Act specifies 10 Information Privacy Principles (IPPs). This document outlines the policies of PLVN regarding its management of personal information under these principles.

Under the Act personal information means recorded information or opinion, whether true or not, about a readily identifiable individual.

IPP 1 - Collection

PLVN only collects personal information that is necessary for the performance of its functions or activities.

Upon collection of such information PLVN will inform the individual; why it is collecting personal information, how that information can be accessed, the purpose for which the information is collected, with whom PLVN shares this information, any relevant laws that require PLVN to collect the information, and the consequences for the individual if all or part of the information is not collected.

All forms /documents that collect personal information will include the privacy notification contained in this document. *

Currently, PLVN holds the following personal information for the following reasons;

Library and Council contact details (telephone number, email address, fax number, work address) for the purpose of circulating information.

Personnel files (letters of offer/acceptance, resumes, leave forms - long service, sick, annual) for employment related reasons.

Resumes for the purpose of job applications /positions.
PLVN INFORMATION PRIVACY POLICY

IPP 2 - Use and Disclosure

PLVN only uses and discloses personal information for the primary purpose for which it was collected, or, a secondary purpose, related to the primary purpose, that the individual would reasonably expect, or a secondary purpose that has the consent of the individual, or where required by law to do so, or for any other reason permitted by the Act.

IPP 3 - Data Quality

PLVN is committed to ensuring that the personal information it holds is accurate, complete and up to date.

IPP 4 - Data Security

PLVN is committed to protecting the personal information it holds from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure

PLVN will take reasonable steps to lawfully and responsibly destroy or permanently de-identify personal information when it is no longer needed for any purpose.

IPP 5 - Openness

PLVN will provide a copy of this policy to any person who requests it.

IPP 6 - Access and Correction

Individuals have the right to seek access to their own personal information held by PLVN and make corrections. Requests for access and correction should be made to PLVN’s Executive Officer.

IPP 7 - Unique Identifiers

A unique identifier is a string of characters, usually a number, used to identify particular individuals. If the same identifier is used by different organisations, it can be a very effective tool for bringing together information about a single individual from a number of different sources.

PLVN will not assign, adopt, use, disclose or require unique identifiers from individuals except for the course of conducting the normal PLVN business or if required by law. PLVN will only use or disclose unique identifiers assigned to individuals by other organisations if the individual consents to the use and disclosure, or the conditions for use and disclosure set out in the Act are satisfied.

IPP 8 - Anonymity

If it is lawful and feasible PLVN will provide individuals with the option of not identifying themselves when entering transactions with PLVN however anonymity may hinder or hamper the ability to deal with certain matters.

IPP 9 - Transborder data flows

PLVN uses a cloud based web service called WIX. The WIX Privacy Policy can be found here: http://www.wix.com/about/privacy
IPP 10 -Sensitive Information

“Sensitive Information” means information or an opinion about an individual’s, race or ethnic origin; political opinions; membership of a political association; religious beliefs or affiliations; philosophical beliefs; membership of a professional or trade association; membership of a trade union; sexual preferences or practices; criminal record – that is also personal information.

PLVN will not collect sensitive information about an individual unless it is for one of the circumstances specified under the Act. This includes, consent of the individual.

Complaints

If an individual has a question, concern or complaint regarding the way in which PLVN handles his or her personal information, he or she can contact PLVN’s Executive Officer direct.

Administration at PLVN

The Executive Officer is Christine Mackenzie execofficer@plvn.net.au p: 03 9667 5542. The Executive Officer will be responsible for receiving complaints and requests for access and correction.
